2022 BURGMANN PRICE SCHOLARSHIP – CHARLES PRICE ENDOWMENT

Overview:

Burgmann College has been awarded with the honor of presenting a scholarship to a deserving resident prior to the start of the academic year, on the behalf of, and in partnership with, the Charles Price Estate.

The Estate is acting in accordance of the wishes of the late Charles Price, who sought to contribute to Burgmann College with the development of future leaders. This scholarship has been generously provided by the Estate of the late Charles Price.

Eligibility:

The Burgmann Scholarship Committee will select the recipient of this award from the eligible applicants. The eligible applicants for this scholarship must be:

- Regional and/or Indigenous Australians; OR
- Australian residents who are recent or first generation migrants to Australia; and
- must reside at Burgmann College for the duration of the scholarship; and
- be undertaking an academic program at the ANU.

Selection Criteria:

The Burgmann Price Scholarship will be awarded to the Burgmann resident on the basis of academic merit, financial need, and contribution to the community.

Application Process:

Applicants must complete and submit the Burgmann Price Scholarship Application Form in which they should detail information about the course they are undertaking at the ANU, their need for financial support, discuss the applicant's contribution to the community, and how the scholarship would benefit them in the pursuit of their academic and leadership endeavors while at the ANU. In addition, the applicant must provide a one-page reference, either academic or professional, detailing the applicant's character, leadership, ethics, and eligibility. Academic Transcript(s) – must be included in order to weigh the applicants academic merit warranting such scholarship. Completed applications can be submitted via email or post as follows:

Email submission to: nerrida.higgins@burgmann.anu.edu.au

Postal submission to: Nerrida Higgins, Burgmann College, PO BOX 1345 ACTON ACT 2601.

- Applications close 7 January 2022 Returning and New Residents. No late applications will be accepted.
- Notification will be by Friday 21 January 2022.

Further Information:

The Burgmann Price Scholarship cannot be deferred; if the scholarship is not accepted, or the resident forfeits the scholarship, he/she will be eligible to reapply the following year. If the scholarship is deemed forfeit, it will be awarded to the next eligible applicant. If no applicant successfully meets the criteria, the scholarship will be withheld, and not awarded for that year. Previously awarded applicants are eligible to apply for the scholarship the following year.

Benefit:

The Scholarship will be provided for one year to assist with the costs of accommodation at Burgmann College at while undertaking academic endeavors at the ANU.

Value:

This Scholarship will be awarded in the value of $5,000 for the academic year.

SECTION B: REQUEST FOR INFORMATION FROM PARENTS/GUARDIANS TO SUPPORT A SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Your child has applied for a Scholarship at Burgmann College for 2022.

Financial need is a criterion in selecting both bursaries and scholarships; but it is a primary factor with respect to bursaries. To assist the College's Bursary and Scholarships Subcommittee in its deliberations, you are requested to provide information on the financial aid you propose to give to your child on the form below. Both parents/guardians are to provide the information, together or separately, as appropriate.

A copy of your last Income Tax Assessment must be provided (year ending 30 June 2021).

Please do NOT send the whole Tax return – simply the ATO Assessment.

Applications cannot be considered without this information.

Absolute confidentiality is assured. When returning the form to the Business Manager, please mark the envelope 'Confidential'.

Should you have any questions regarding the Scholarship application, please contact the Manager – Business and Finance, Mrs Nerrida Higgins, Tel (02) 6125 6081 or email nerrida.higgins@burgmann.anu.edu.au.
